

TEDMED 2016

Be a part of TEDMED 2016 at UT Austin as we explore provocative, inspiring questions that drive us toward a healthier world.

2 Easy Ways to Watch & Learn:

Watch LIVE & Discuss

When: Thursday, Dec. 1
from 4:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Where: Dell Medical School's
Health Learning Building (HLB)
Auditorium 1.111

WATCH: 4:00 – 5:45

View seven LIVE streaming presentations, including “How Doctors Die” (5:30-5:45), a presentation by Lucy Kalanithi based on the best-selling book, When Breath Becomes Air.

Full schedule of presentations here: <http://tedmed.com/event/stage2016>

DISCUSS: 5:45 – 6:30

Join a discussion and Q&A about “How Doctors Die” moderated by David Ring, MD, PhD, Associate Dean of Comprehensive Care at Dell Medical School.

We're excited to see you and hear your thoughts!

Watch LIVE or On-Demand from anywhere

When: Wednesday, Nov. 30 – Friday, Dec. 2

Where: dellmedschool.utexas.edu/
tedmed

1. Visit dellmedschool.utexas.edu/tedmed
2. Click “Continue” under Invitation Code “TMUTexas16”.
3. Complete and submit the TEDMEDLive application.
4. Check your email for viewing instructions, and enjoy the video stream!

We hope you join the discussion on the future of health in whatever way you're able.